Notes on Sources

I have researched the City and Suburban Association Annual Reports over the 50 seasons 1971-2021. Till 1999 the C&SCA annual report did not include individual reports from all the Clubs nor list their results and leading players. Under the secretaryship of Bill Wray (1955-1979) and Jack Pace (1979-1999), the Annual Reports only listed the leading batsmen and bowlers in the competition and also record centuries and hauls of 7 or more wickets but otherwise only recorded the odd noteworthy performance with no methodical summary of each club's performance. This changed with individual club reports under John Russell's secretaryship (1999-2006) and his successor Brian Breakspear (2007 to date).

The Cricketers' Club as a registered club produced annual reports and accounts for its members up to its liquidation in 2001 but the playing of cricket was a relatively small part of its activities and the cricket reports in these annual reports are brief. I have been unable to trace these annual reports for the seasons 1971-2; 1973-75, 1977-78, 1981-82, 1986-93 and 1994-2001.

John Russell as manager of and scorer for the C&S team from approximately 1990 to the first decade of this century used to produce and distribute to the players match reports, seasons' statistics and summary of results. Most of these in the 1990s have vanished without trace and John Russell has now been dead some years. What became of his papers is not known.

A few players did keep some records. I am grateful to Keith Elloy for some of the seasons' averages and results from the 1980s and to Greg Brooks and Scott McCallum for some of the records of the 1990s though there are still large gaps in the first three decades 1971-2001.

The new Incorporated association has kept detailed records since 2002 which can be found on its web site at www.ccns.com
