CCNSW C&S MATCH REPORTS 2024-2025 SEASON

WEEK FOUR: SUNDAY 13 OCTOBER 2024

C&S ROUND 2 v COLLEAGUES AT CAMPERDOWN OVAL, CAMPERDOWN ON SUNDAY 13 OCTOBER 2024: REPORT BY JAMES MURTHA

Finally, the 2024/2025 season is underway! Conditions were perfect for our first game of the season blue skies and sunny at the jewel of the Inner-West, Camperdown Oval.

The pitch was well used from the day before, not a lot of grass on top and very hard despite overnight rain. It seemed like a good batting surface! Captain Jamie Murtha won the toss and elected to bat with the goal of putting a huge score on the board.

Gerry O'Shea and Roman Hughes, the new look opening pair continued their brilliant partnership batting from the previous weeks C&S social game, rotating the strike with ease and putting away half volleys emphatically The duo gave us a very strong start scoring 79 after 15 overs before Gerry ran himself out going for a risky single. Roman fell shortly after, trapped lbw but both batters had done their job for the team.

Karthick Subramaniam hit three solid fours behind square, but unfortunately his stumps were thoroughly levelled by the typically low Camperdown bounce. At this stage we were 3-110 after 23 overs which despite still a strong start, has historically been quite a precarious situation for our middle order.

Soren Hughes and Jamie Murtha started the counterattack, Soren found the boundary regularly while Jamie rotated the strike; this continued as the pair crossed the 50 and 100 run partnership milestones. Soren continued picking off the bowlers, but not without luck after surviving two regulation catching opportunities. He made the most of his luck and crossed the hundred run mark with an inside edge that whistled past the leg stump for two – he quietly raised his bat to acknowledge the applause having scored his first ever century.

The batting innings concluded shortly after, we put on a formidable 4-253 after 40 overs which would take some chasing.

Following the tea break Avi Bhandari and Mike Weaver opened the bowling; both were very economical up-front against good batters, Mike produced an important wicket early giving us a strong start.

Tom Killingsworth was tricky to play with his off pace outswing; one batter found the running Jamie at mid-off who travelled around to mid-wicket to take a tricky catch. Adam Khamis also got amongst the wickets and broke a critical partnership, once again the batter finding Jamie, this time on the boundary running from long-on to long-off.

The opposition were a bit too close to our total for comfort until Roman Hughes struck a double blow, followed up by Adam picking up a run out to end the chase from Colleagues and secure a 32 run victory.

A solid performance from the C&S team to open our season. The boys were treated to a dazzling display of hitting from Soren and many will remember his ton for years to come!

WEEK FIVE: SUNDAY 20 OCTOBER 2024

C&S JACK PACE ROUND 1 v REG BARTLEY XI AT REG BARTLEY OVAL, RUSHCUTTERS BAY ON SUNDAY 20 OCTOBER 2024: REPORT BY SOREN HUGHES

Rushcutters Bay. Checking forecast, rain. No covers. Checking tide map, tide going out. In Essex, that means it will flatten out and get easier to bat on. Win toss and bowl?

We won the toss and bowled. Perhaps there was a bit in the wicket. Rhys Longbottom 's opening spell seamed around and produced some good results on that front. The ball was moving around off the deck with good carry. Roman Hughes bowled a few good balls too. Strategy was to keep taking wickets, which went well for a while. However one batter faced about 80 balls for 20 runs. Perhaps some spinners would work it out. We had four of them so worth a run. For a while we looked like holding them back to under 100; however one of their batters scored an unremarkable 80 odd. Didn't remember it that way. Felt like he scored about 20. Apparently not. Henry Davis bowled a good spell of leg spin at the end of their innings, 4 wickets, including deja vu at mid off.

Batting. 145 was achievable. Just not sure why we didn't achieve it, only needing average of under 15 runs per batter. The pitch had flattened out. Turns out the Reg Bartley England XI were playing and we didn't see off the openers, or the first change. Some really unremarkable batting involved. Stumps everywhere - 4 bowled and 2 ducks. All out for 59 in 25 overs. Hard day at the office. Missed out. Nothing else to say.

The Team was: - Sebastian White (w) 9, Zaeem UL Haque Kazi 0, Rhys Longbottom 4, Sam Millar 4; Harry Bridge 4, Karthick Subramaniam 0, Soren Hughes (c) 16, Henry Davis 0, Adam Khamis 9 , Luke Holman 0, Roman Hughes 3*

WEEK SIX: THURSDAY 24 - SUNDAY 27 OCTOBER 2024

C&S ROUND 3 v OLD ALOYSIANS AT ST ALOYSIUS OVAL, NORTH WILLOUGHBY ON SUNDAY 27 OCTOBER 2024: REPORT BY JAMIE MURTHA

We won the toss and elected to bat first on a slightly softer than usual looking pitch. We posted a total of 8-175 runs off our 40 overs, with Gerry O'Shea leading the run scoring with a solid 58. He was supported up top by Sebastian White (15) who was able to rotate the strike and defend against some very skillful bowling. The opposition fielders saved what felt like double that amount of runs with an incredible fielding effort on the day.

Sam Millar (36) put in a solid performance too, putting away the short ball, but the two paced nature of the wicket made it difficult to score runs. Soren Hughes (21) had a little cameo but was undone by an outstanding run-out. The rest of the batting struggled to make significant contributions but Adam Khamis and Luke Holman were able to walk back to the sheds with their heads high, surviving the overs and notching up 3 runs not out each. While not a particularly large total, we felt that given the conditions we had an outside chance to defend the total.

In response, on-loan Old Aloysian CC players Nihal Reddy and Arees Rauf both bowled very well and picked up a couple of economic wickets, Soren produced a 'jaffa' to nick of their number three for 0. Adam Khamis also produced a genuine seed that pitched on middle and rattled off stump. Luke Holman picked up one wicket, but was unlucky not to get more, having three very tough chances dropped off of his bowling. Seb White stood out in the field taking 3 sharp catches and a stumping.

Unfortunately, our valiant efforts were not enough as the opposition chased down the target, finishing at 177 for the loss of 8 wickets in 32.4 overs. Despite losing early wickets, they maintained steady partnerships. Some very challenging dropped catches hurt our cause and lead to the opposition batters making crucial contributions that led to their victory.

In the end it was a reasonably competitive match; however we still fell short of taking 10 wickets. OACC once again showcased why they are the most dominant team in the Association, achieving victory by 2 wickets with almost eight overs to spare and their leading batter Tom Goh retiring early on 68* to let the OA's later batters have a go.

Onwards and upwards to JPS round 2 next week against Cranbrook Old Boys at Dangar Oval, Rose Bay!

The Team was (playing ten): - Gerard O'Shea 58; Sebastian White (w) 15, Karthick Subramaniam 3, Sam Millar 36, Soren Hughes 21, Nihal Reddy 3, Asif Rauf 11, Jamie Murtha (c) 0, Adam Khamis 3* and Luke Holman 3*

WEEK SEVEN : SUNDAY 3 NOVEMBER 2024

C&S JACK PACE ROUND 2 v OLD CRANBROOKIANS AT DANGAR OVAL, ROSE BAY ON SUNDAY 3 NOVEMBER 2024: REPORT BY SOREN HUGHES

It is always nice to get over to the Sydney's Eastern Suburbs, however it hasn't been a happy hunting ground for us over the last 5 years or so. This year was filled with promise as the last couple of games had just slipped away from us when victory was within reach and the Cranbrookians have had a bad history for forfeiting more recently and the chirping getting louder

We won the toss and batted on a glorious day, tarnished by recent wet weather turning the centre square to mud and luring us to a new square close to the pavilion area. The boundaries were notably smaller than usual and it seemed obvious that a few of our guys could smell big scores in those circumstances. Seb White and Roman Hughes were out of the blocks quickly but both fell early. From here Avi Bhandari and Sam Millar produced a solid partnership with the ball flying over and to the boundary ok command. Millar absolutely belted one over the pavilion into the neighboring property, perhaps knocking on the door calling Jim Hadley over for a visit at the interval, which was a pleasant memory in hindsight given he was then in good spirits and could see a CCNSW victory on the way. When Bhandari decided he didn't want to bat, Soren Hughes slogged his way to 51 from 29 balls with the assistance of Millar (42) and Karthick Subramaniam (23), rolling off the back of a big innings the week before. Some contributions from Jamie Murtha, Declan Thomas, Adam Khamis and Smokey led us to the bowling innings with a tidy and defendable 202 on the board.

From here Bhandari and 'Smokey' Yap seemed to stun the Old Cranbrookians with line and length and a bit of fizz and cut off the deck. So much so that they wanted to forget all about it in refusing to post their half of the scorebook after the game. There was some genuine spite in the bowling attack this week, as there was more great bowling that followed from Khamis, Roman Hughes, Soren Hughes and Jamie Murtha as the Old Cranbrookians fell into a heap, making their innings seem more like a takeaway shop counter, with each coming in ordering runs and departing with a few until all had been served and CCNSW had served up a Jack Pace special on them. I'd like to think there is much more of that on the way in coming years as the same old foes grow a more little weary and our hunger to win continues to grow. Vale Jim Hadley.

WEEK EIGHT : SATURDAY 9-SUNDAY 10 NOVEMBER 2024

C&S ROUND 4 v YARALLA AT GODDARD OVAL, CONCORD ON SATURDAY 9 NOVEMBER 2024: REPORT BY RICHARD CLARK

On Saturday 9th of November, The C&S squad travelled out to Goddard Oval to play Yaralla on a lovely day for cricket – fortunate given how slowly the game was played on account of our opponents.

Yaralla batted first and their openers put on a dominant performance to be 0-45 after 8. Some good bowling, good fielding placements and some tough opportunities in slips saw the run rate slow and the pressure build before Soren Hughes (after dropping a couple at 2nd slip) finally got the break through with a solid catch to keeper Declan Thomas to take the dominant opener with the score now 1-74 off 15. A catch in the outfield by Richard Clark off the first ball of Henry Davis was the start of a great leg spin partnership which squeezed the run rate further and had the batsman looking to get off to drinks an over early (2 tough drop catches to Adam Khamis in the 18th over revealed why the batters were so keen for a break).

Wickets continued to steadily fall after the break and the run rate never really recovered (but neither did it falter) and Yaralla finished with a solid 8-170 with the off spin from new player Zari Kazi (5-41 from 6 overs) being the pick of the bowlers.

After what seemed like a break that lasted an age, Yaralla returned to the field and their opening bowlers were horrendously difficult to face (ball keeping low, fast and outside off) and took opener Mike Weaver and number 3, Sam Millar, without troubling the scorers. Asif Kazi and Gerry O'Shea kept the openers out but understandably struggled to lift the strike rate. 2-47 at drinks meant we had wickets in hand but time was short. In an attempt to lift the strike rate, we lost the next 5 wickets for 40 runs to leave us at 7-89 after 27 overs. However the second-string bowlers were now on in the fading light and Richard Clark batted aggressively to try to win the game for us with a chivalrous 45 off 29 balls with help from Declan, Adam Khamis and Henry Davis to lift the rate. We finished all out with 2 balls left for a more respectable 154 (17 runs short of the total) and give Yaralla a bit of a fright and glad they had their brown undies on!

Thanks to Soren Hughes for great captaincy and organising the match day and for the stand in players who put in a fantastic performance across the day!

WEEK NINE : SATURDAY 16-SUNDAY 17 NOVEMBER 2024

C&S JACK PACE ROUND 3 v MARRICKVILLE SOLDIERS XI AT ALEXANDRIA OVAL, SOUTH SYDNEY ON SUNDAY 17 NOVEMBER 2024: REPORT BY SOREN HUGHES

With rain around through the week and a shock revelation of no covers down and the week spent scrambling for players to turn up, it was a relief to get to the ground a bit early in anticipation of 12 blokes on the park for us. A quick pitch inspection in the sunshine made it an easy decision to win the toss and bat. To quote Jim Hadley, it's better to score the runs on a dodgy wicket then chase down runs on a worn out dodgy wicket. That said, it actually looked pretty good and felt pretty hard to touch.

The short boundaries at either end and a Lords style sloping pitch didn't seem to cause too much fuss for the openers Roman Hughes and Seb White. The Marrickville bowlers were unfortunately cursed by a Kangarruci ball; but however bowled a good line and length. Roman soon nicked one onto his legs and stumps, Kieren Pollard missed an angling leg stump yorker at pace and Zaheem Kazi looked pretty solid before getting through a pull shot too quick and hitting one off the back of his bat to the keeper at 3 for 34. Nothing like a partnership to pick things up though. Sam Millar and Seb White then saw off the openers and fed off the first change. Millar hit a big six down near the tennis courts and White patiently adding boundaries for fun before both fell in succession at 5 for 127 after 26. Soren Hughes and Ezekiel Hughes started a productive partnership by aiming for the boundary but before long CCNSW was all out for 181 in the 34th over.

Defending the total didn't seem much of an ask when Roman removed an opener with his first ball, unfortunately he was "graded" at 21 from his second over by their number 3. With 'Smokey' Yap steaming in and causing all sorts of confusion at the other end, Roman was replaced by his older brother, Ezekiel and things then calmed a little. After a dropped chance, the obvious threat was baffled by an Adam Khamis full toss chipped to Kieren Purnell at short fine leg. With the threat removed at 4 for 73, Marrickville stayed close to the rate but fell behind with Adam Khamis taking a stranglehold on the game with a Shane Warne and Murali inspired demonstration of leg spin, taking his first 'Michelle' for the club with 5 for 13 from 7. With Marrickville being punished for a slow over rate in the fading light, Harry Walsh led the uprising with a Gerry O'Shea like demonstration of technique and skill, chasing the win admirably. Unfortunately, it was all too much and the CCNSW win was celebrated with a a beer drinking contest sponsored by Guinness and coffee flavoured Doritos. Who would have thought it was the ideal way to spend the evening as the thunderstorm set in for a wet drive home and marveling a JPS victory that would put us in contention for the finals.

WEEK TEN : SATURDAY 23-SUNDAY 24 NOVEMBER 2024

C&S ROUND 5 v SACHIN TENDULKAR XI AT CAMPERDOWN OVAL, CAMPERDOWN ON SATURDAY 23 NOVEMBER 2024: REPORT BY JAMIE MURTHA

This week we were back at home, we lost the toss and were sent into the field to bat first on a pretty hard looking Camperdown pitch which looked decent to bat on, the grass was also cut short and looked very thin and fast!

Our opposition was clearly not familiar with the conditions, and their top order was decimated by Valmik Ahire and Ezekiel Hughes, both picking up a couple of wickets to leave SRT reeling at 5-48.

Adam Khamis continued his excellent bowling form picking up two wickets of his own, and both Soren and Roman Hughes also contributed with a wicket each. With most of the sting taken out of the opposition batting line up they decided to instead bat defensively and managed to complete their 40 overs for just 162, which seemed close to 100 runs short for the conditions.

CCNSW put on a typically excellent spread for tea, which was very welcome in the heat before recommencing the match at around 3:45.

Gerry O'Shea and Roman Hughes continued their solid form as a batting partnership, both finding the boundary regularly before Gerry was adjudged lbw off the inside edge of his bat to a good ball that swung in late. Emmanuel Mouglalis also fell lbw first ball; however there was no doubt about this one, taking the score to 2-48.

Sam Millar joined Roman at the crease and the pair didn't hold back. They kept the scoreboard ticking over with regular boundaries. Sam played more of a backseat role, rotating the strike to Roman who seemingly found the middle with every shot.

With only a few runs remaining before the target was reached, and Roman closing in on his maiden century, the team wondered how Sam would respond, he continued to pass the strike on effortlessly, despite having opportunities to put poor bowling away.

With only 7 runs required to win and Roman on 99, a well timed back foot drive straight to the cover fielder was misfielded and he was able to take a comfortable 2, there was a joyous applause from the C&S team and a very proud Hughes' family as Roman quietly raised his bat and helmet towards the team. The very next ball Roman hit a 6 over mid-wicket into the fig tree to steer us to a comfortable 8 wicket victory with 13.4 overs remaining.

It was a brilliant century to watch, Roman seemed to hit every ball squarely out of the middle of his brand new bat, he presented the full face and offered very few opportunities in his knock of 107* off only 80 deliveries including 16 fours and 1 six. We look forward to seeing many more centuries from the young man in future!

Next week we are against Knox in the Jack Pace Shield, seeking a win to all but secure a spot in the quarter final!

WEEK ELEVEN : SATURDAY 30 NOVEMBER-SUNDAY 1 DECEMBER 2024

C&S JPS ROUND 4 v OLD KNOXONIANS AT GILLESPIE FIELD, WAHROONGA ON SUNDAY 1 DECEMBER 2024: REPORT BY JAMIE MURTHA

Our Jack Pace Shield match against Knox Old Boys was a tight contest played in humid conditions after torrential rain the two days prior. It's incredible that we managed to get a game in!

The opposition won the toss and chose to field, which worked for us because our intention was to bat on the slightly softish green wicket.

Garry O'Shea and Seb White set a solid platform after getting through a tight new ball bowling attack. Karthick Submaraniam looked good during his little cameo but a cluster of wickets either side of drinks meant we needed to fortify our position in order to post a total.

Jamie Murtha and Seb continued to accumulate runs, Seb played well but fell just short of a half century. Rhys Longbottom smashed three sixes in a row and helped boost the team total to a competitive 9-144 at the end of our 35 overs.

Our bowlers started well, Rhys Longbottom opened with Aleksandr "Smokey" Yap and both contained the opening batters. A brilliant jumping catch from Max Sardelic brought about our first wicket off the bowling of Rhys.

Henry Davis and Carl Mandel also created chances and kept the bowlers fairly quiet, Carl picked up two wickets on debut and offered a handy contribution to the team.

Adam Khamis started well with a wicket and looked good as usual but the batters started to have luck go their way and were able to turn half chances into boundaries.

We took the game into the 32nd over but unfortunately were probably 20 runs short of the total required to win. Regardless it was one of our better recent performances against a strong Knox side and hopefully we can get the wood on them next season.

We head back to Camperdown next week to face off against Sydney University Lions on Sunday 8th December.

WEEK TWELVE: SATURDAY 7 DECEMBER-SUNDAY 8 DECEMBER 2024

C&S ROUND 6 v SYDNEY UNIVERSITY LIONS AT CAMPERDOWN OVAL, CAMPERDOWN, ON SUNDAY 8 DECEMBER 2024: REPORT BY JAMES MURTHA

We put forward a strong team and had a very strong batting performance up front scoring 216 runs for the loss of only 5 wickets in our 35 overs, Sam Millar (65)and Ryan Lynch(64) both starred with 65 and 64 respectively, and Roman Hughes scored a busy 34 up front to get the scoreboard started!

We bowled too well for the opposition having them all out in the 30th over for 151 runs, Ezekiel Hughes did damage with 4 wickets and a solid high catch, Jamie Murtha picked up 3 wickets and Adam Khamis 2 to extend his lead for most wickets.

Overall an excellent team performance to warm us up for our Jack Pace Shield match next week!

WEEK THIRTEEN : SATURDAY 14 DECEMBER-SUNDAY 15 DECEMBER 2024

C&S JACK PACE ROUND 5- vs ST GEORGE VETERANS AT CAMPERDOWN OVAL, CAMPERDOWN ON SATURDAY 14TH DECEMBER 2024 – REPORT BY J.MURTHA

For our 5th and final JPS game of the season, we knew we had to put on a strong performance that would improve our quotient to earn a spot in the quarter final, it was a perfect Summer day the pitch looked very good for batting with a little bit of grass on the surface but still hard enough to bounce well.

Valmik Ahire and Yogesh Giri bowled well up front, they didn't let the openers get away from them and both picked up a wicket or two each, Henry Davis bowled his mediums to very good effect, batters struggled to get him away as he picked them off one by one, finishing with figures of 3-15., Avinash Bhandari, Soren Hughes and Jamie Murthacleaned up a few at the end to bowl the opposition our for a paltry 120 runs in 34 overs.

At the tea break the guys put on another good spread of cakes and fruit this week which gave us some energy for the run chase.

The goal was to score the runs as quickly as possible, so we went for the young guns Roman and Ryan, the pair went tit for tat, hitting fours to all parts of the ground, the bowlers has nowhere to hide and ball didn't have any skin left on it.

In a measly 9.3 overs the pair had nearly both brought up half centuries and won the match by 10 wickets, I will add that extras as also on its way to an impressive half century, with 27:- 13 no balls, 12 wides, 2 byes.

Overall an excellent performance from the team and standout individuals which has almost certainly secured us a place in the JPS quarter final where we aim to go two better than last year in February 2025!

Next week we are at Camperdown again on Saturday 21st December against NSW Fire and Rescue XI.

The Team was (playing 12) : - Roman Hughes (w) 49*, Ryan Lynch 45*, Avinash Bhandari dnb, Paul Nash dnb, James Murtha (c) dnb, Soren Hughes dnb, Henry Davis dnb, Naraen Sivakumaran dnb, Yogesh Giri dnb, Adam Khamis dnb, Valmik Ahire dnb and Gerard O'Shea dnb

C&S ROUND 7 v NSW FIRE AND RESCUE AT CAMPERDOWN OVAL, CAMPERDOWN ON SATURDAY 21 DECEMBER 2024: REPORT BY JAMIE MURTHA

We lost the toss and were sent in to bat on a warm day, the pitch looked a little bit soft of the surface but turned out to be a great batting track.

The CCNSW batters made the most of day with Max Sardelic scoring his maiden 50, Roman Hughes continuing his fine form with a 50* of his own, and decent scores from Declan Thomas, Sam Millar and Ezekiel Hughes to give us a strong 6-251 in our 40 overs.

The match looked to be tight, until a batting collapse effected by Roman's brilliant spell of 5-8 ended the match in a hurry, NSW Fire and Rescue all out for 180.

The Team was: – Gerard O'Shea 9; Max Sardelic (w) 66, Declan Thomas 34 , Sam Millar 43, J. Murtha (c) 0, Craig Kitson 4, Roman Hughes 51*, Ezekiel Hughes 27*, Henry Davis dnb, Kieren Purnell dnb, Adam Khamis dnb and Soren Hughes dnb

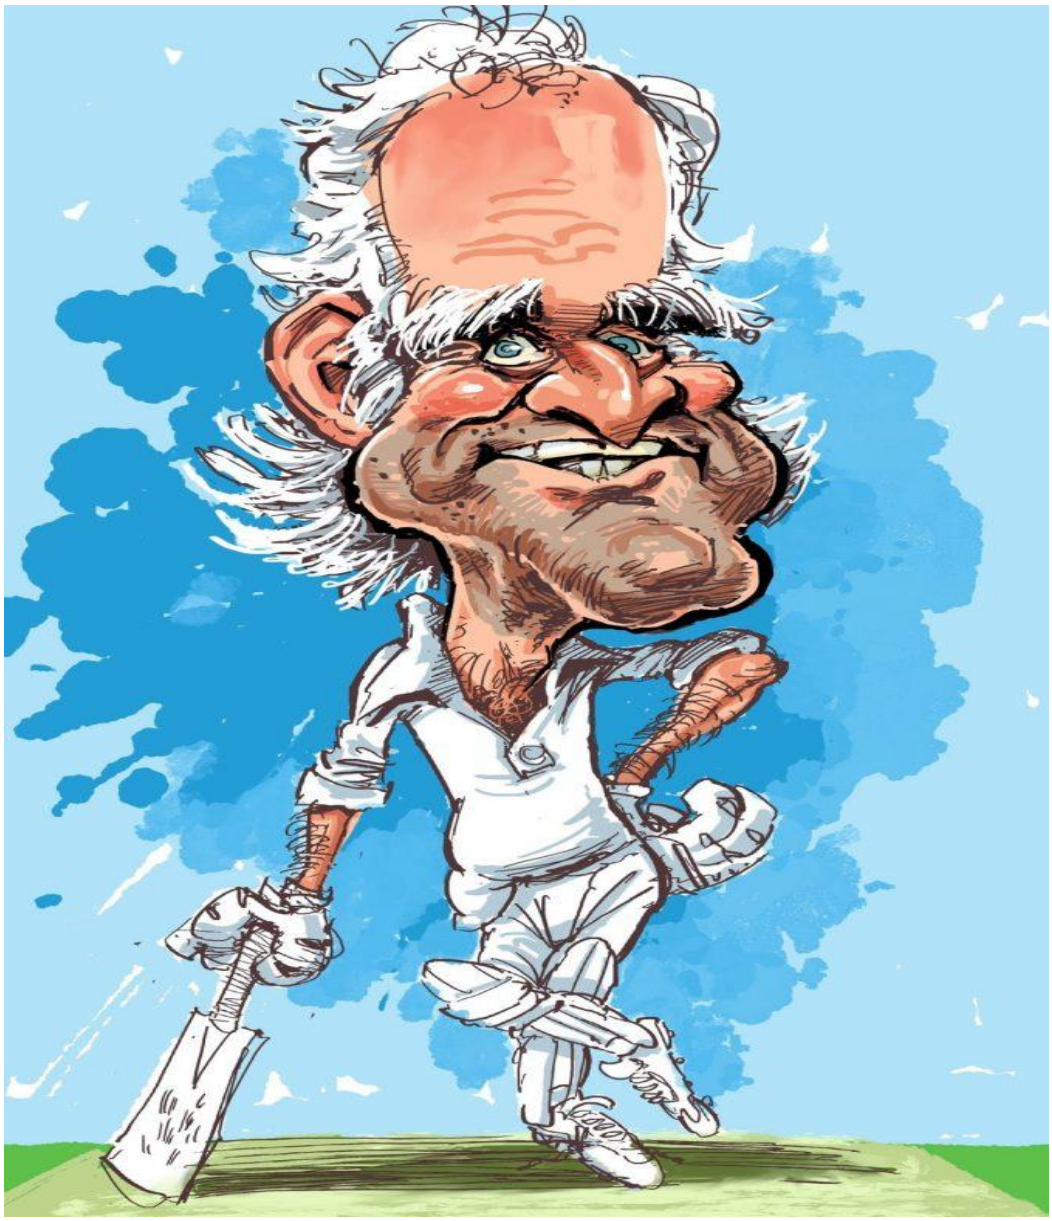
WEEK FOURTEEN: SATURDAY 4 JANUARY AND SUNDAY 5 JANUARY 2025

C&S ROUND 8 v SYDNEY UNIVERSITY LIONS AT CAMPERDOWN OVAL CAMPERDOWN, ON SUNDAY 5 JANUARY 2025: REPORT BY JAMIE MURTHA FOR THE BROOKS-MANNING MOORHOUSE TROPHY



It was a perfect January day for cricket, warm and sunny, however there was a somber mood around the ground being the first match played since we lost our former C&S Captain Jim Hadley who passed away on Boxing Day. Jim was an incredible man, a big part of our club and he loved this fixture. Many came down to observe a minutes silence before the match and share their stories.

Jim was a gentleman on and off the field, a fierce but fair competitor and extremely talented in all facets of the game. The sheer volume of outpouring on the clubs' social pages speaks volumes to the impact he had on our club. Jim played first grade cricket for Mosman and Wests in Sydney, had a successful stint with Wimbledon CC in London as a youngster.

Sydney University Lions won the toss and correctly elected to bat, the conditions were suited to battiing and that was made evident by their imposing total of 4-270 in 35 overs that the Lions scored, 171 of those runs coming from one player! Only Henry looked threatening with the ball during his handy spell of 7 overs 2-30.

After tea we set about the run chase, and started at a good rate! After Roman Hughes and Jamie Murtha fell, the supremely experienced pair of Paul Nash and Soren Hughes put on over 100 runs at better than a run a ball, Avi Bhandari knocked around an effortless half century as well to steer us to victory with two overs still remaining.

A great victory for the Blues in memory of Jim and one of the highest successful run chases in recent memory, there was a lot to celebrate after the game as both teams stayed around for a few beers in the evening sun.

The Team was: – Roman Hughes 25; Jamie Murtha (c) 11; Paul Nash 65; Soren Hughes 69; Avi Bhandari 58; Karthick Subramaniam 10; Ezekiel Hughes 7; Max Sardelic 0*; Michael Weaver (w) dnb; Henry Davis dnb; Adam Khamis dnb; Shane Petersen dnb.

C&S ROUND 9 v I ZINGARI AUSTRALIA AT ST PAULS OVAL, SYDNEY UNIVERSITY, CAMPERDOWN ON SATURDAY 11 JANUARY 2024: REPORT BY JAMIE MURTHA

Both teams arrived at a ground expecting to get little to no play after a week of torrential rain, somehow, the pitch and field were in pretty good condition! The pitch looked a bit crumbly on the surface but still had some hardness about it. We won the toss and elected to bat.

Seb White and Roman Hughes got us off to a watchful start, but unfortunately once the pair fell it was like watching dominoes falling, at 5-49 we were in big trouble. Jamie Murtha offered some resistance and some good hitting from Soren Hughes, Declan Thomas and Rhys Longbottom helped us avoid being bundled out for an embarrassing total. Still, all out for 144 didn't seem like it would be enough runs against our experienced opposition.

It turned out to be nowhere near enough runs, as I Zingari chased our score down comfortable in 20 overs, winning by 6 wickets. We didn't help ourselves in the bowling and fielding department, however at least we got an early mark. We will look to bounce back next week against Nondescripts!

WEEK SIXTEEN: SATURDAY 18 JANUARY AND SUNDAY 19 JANUARY 2025

C&S ROUND 10 v NONDESCRIPTS AT CAMPERDOWN PARK, CAMPERDOWN ON SUNDAY 19 JANUARY 2024: REPORT BY ADAM KHAMIS

Following a gloomy and wet week, many of us were surely thinking that we would be lucky to be getting on at Camperdown. But the weather gods were smiling on us once again, as they have been all season. Team warm-up consisted of taking the covers off without pouring the pooled water onto the pitch or square, which we managed admirably. Having won the toss, our batters padded up while the bowlers put their feet up, feeling a little puffed after helping to heave wet covers around

Openers Max Sardelic and his coach Gerry O'Shea started well, before both chopping on within a few overs of each other. Max attempted to pull a ball that wasn't there to be pulled while Gerry blocked a ball and then failed to notice it slowly rolling back onto his stumps. Ryan Lynch looked solid early before scooping a ball straight back to the bowler. CCNSW were 3-30 after 9 overs with Sam Millar and Jamie Murtha at the crease. While the odd delivery jumped like a tennis ball, the pitch was otherwise flat and we would need close to 200 to be able to defend our total. As usual, Sam wasn't at the crease to muck around; his third scoring shot going for six as he made destructive batting look easy in a way us tail-enders can only dream of emulating. Jamie got on with things at the other end, stroking the ball around and turning ones into twos with some good running.

A passing shower stopped neither play nor the runs as the two put on 90 together before Sam was run out by a sharp piece of fielding from a semi-camouflaged fielder (how we have a situation where three countries are allowed to play white ball cricket while wearing green is beyond me). Undeterred, Jamie continued on his merry way now joined by Greg "Prez" Brooks. The Prez showed us why he's seen as an up-and-coming talent as he entertained the crowd with beautiful strokes to all parts of the ground, including a six over the pavilion. He put on 65 runs with Jamie as they (almost) closed out the innings. Jamie and Nick Warmerdam were both caught slogging on the last two balls of the innings. CCNSW made 6-185 off their 35 overs.

It was starting to look like four seasons in one day as the sun shone bright at the start of the second innings. Our opening bowlers started well, both snaring a wicket in their opening spell. Jamie removing one opening bat clean bowled, while Valmik Ahire nabbed the other; some tight bowling producing a catch. The skipper turned to spin without warning (absolutely none I tell you) and Adam Khamis came into the attack to bowl his leg spin. Comparisons to Bill O'Reilly are still very premature, as Adam bowled reasonably solidly but without luck.

From the other end came Michael Weaver, headband in place and raring to go after another mid-week net session where he took another 10-wicket haul judging by his constant shouts of delight. 'Weaves' made the breakthrough straight away with a very sharp caught-and-bowled. He took another two wickets off his two spells to finish with the impressive figures of 3-8 off 4 overs.

Meanwhile, Ryan Lynch replaced Adam at the other end. It was during his spell that wicketkeeper Max Sardelic affected a very good run out, chasing the ball down towards fine leg and throwing to the bowler's end to get the wicket. Another leg spinner (there must always be at least two in the C&S side) Naraen Sivakumaran was brought on along with Nick Warmerdam to keep the pressure on the opposition. Nondescripts were 6-126 and behind the game, but with their number 3 batter still at the crease and looking good. Several more sixes were hit over the pavilion though no passing joggers or playing children were left concussed. The weather was changing again; sun shines on the black clouds over the domain.

Skipper Murtha then brought himself back, now bowling spin, and tempted the no. 3 to hit the ball straight down Ryan's throat at deep mid-wicket. The new batter brought a runner with him to the crease, deciding to choose the only one of his team mates to have already been run out this game to fill the role. It therefore had to happen that he would be run out twice in the same match, this time with a sharp throw from Adam Khamis at square leg (Ed note: direct hit from side on…very impressive!). Jamie and Weaves finished off the tail, Nondescripts all out for 134. A satisfying win for CCNSW, with several good contributions from both the batters and bowlers.

JACK PACE QUARTER FINAL V KNOX OLD BOYS AT GILLESPIE FIELD, WAHROONGA ON SUNDAY 2 FEBRUARY 2025: REPORT BY JAMIE MURTHA

After a long week of wet weather we turned up to the ground on a perfectly sunny afternoon. The pitch was anything but dry however. Once the covers were removed it was difficult to ascertain from more than few meters where the pitch was in relation to the rest of the field. The surface was green, grassy and very soft.

We won the toss and elected to bat given that we thought the surface would have many divots and remain just as sticky for the entire match (which turned out to be true).

The pitch was a bit of a minefield as expected, Seb White had to negotiate some unplayable deliveries at times and managed to guts it out for a while along with Ryan Lynch who looked the most settled in those conditions.

The middle order batters all made starts but there was always a ball with your name on it just around the corner, we looked to be in a bit of trouble around 5-80.

Rhys Longbottom was completely unphased by the conditions however and proceeded to destroy the spin bowlers, scoring 55 off only 21 deliveries including two cricket balls into the houses, in consecutive deliveries!

Ezekiel Hughes got some good shots away late in the innings to boost our score to 9-175 in 35 overs which looked to be quite competitive given where we were earlier in the innings!

After a short break the team was back out there ready to bowl the first ball.

Avi Bhandari and Rhys Longbottom opened the bowling and were unplayable to start, Rhys struck one of their openers dead in front of middle in the first overs, a roaring a appeal was amusingly denied. The only thing it was missing was off and leg stump! The very next ball middle stump was flat against the surface of the pitch and the opener was knocked over with the exact same delivery.

Avi setup the other opener with a spooned catch to Sam Millar at cover. From here Knox looked to try and steady their batting and while they moved the scoreboard along slowly, Roman, Soren, Ezekiel Hughes and Henry Davis all bowled well and picked up valuable wickets.

The match got very tense towards the end and with just 45 runs and 4 wickets to win respectively from 10 overs, Jamie Murtha turned to his own bowling to try get the set batters out. While not his best bowling performance he produced two good opportunities that were both put down and went on to hurt us.

Henry Davis made up for a dropped catch and effected a good run out a short time later, but unfortunately by this point the damage was done and with only two wickets remaining and 5 runs to win in 2 overs , a 'French Cut', past the leg stump for 4 was essentially the nail in the coffin.

With scores level heading into the last over, Bhandari gallantly bowled the first 4 balls perfectly, the batters unable to produce a run until the 5th ball with a streaky top edge to mid-off.

It was a tough loss to handle, coming so close and playing better cricket on the day all-round, but despite the result we were able to leave with our heads high knowing we put in a very good performance and nearly caused a huge upset.

The team has made significant improvements since last year, we have recruited several young players and no doubt we are not far from making a semi final in the coming seasons if we continue this trajectory. Many thanks to all who contributed this season to make it fun and competitive. It was thoroughly enjoyable and I'm looking forward to next year's JPS shield series!

CCNSW C&S ROUND 13 v HUNTERS HILL PIRATES AT BORONIA PARK, HUNTERS HILL ON SUNDAY 16 FEBRUARY 2025:REPORT BY ADAM KHAMIS

Due to a shortage of available players, it was a combined CCNSW/Marrickville Soldiers XI that made the trip to Boronia Park to play Hunter's Hill. An interesting looking pitch forced the bowlers to outvote the batters and we elected to bowl first after winning the toss. Tarin Farman and Daniel O'Sullivan opened the bowling to the soundtrack of screaming children and bleating animals (there was a children's party on the other side of the pavilion). Both restricted run scoring with good line and length bowling, exploiting the variable bounce in the pitch and swinging the ball around.

O'Sullivan picked up two wickets in two balls, first nicking off an opener to Jamie Murtha at slip and then nailing the new batter pluml bw in his next over. The two batters now at the crease clearly had the smell of charcoal in their nostrils as they repeatedly did their best to run each other out. Eventually, the inevitable happened and one was run out at the bowler's end as they both stood down the other end. Perhaps the wrong one sacrificed himself as I reckon we could have gotten another 'yes, no, sorry' out of him if he'd stuck around.

The first change bowlers of Mehul Sejwal and Kishna Dhawan kept the pressure on with a mix of accurate and aggressive bowling. The scoreboard pressure drew shots that offered chances, with Dhawan eventually striking the top of off stump. Hunter's Hill limped to drinks at 4-45 off 17 overs. After the break a change of pace was called for so resident leg spinner Adam Khamis was brought into the attack. The introduction of the spinner really got the batsmen into a swinging mood but if the pitch was good for seam bowling, it was even better for spin bowling. A stumping was quickly followed by a pop-up catch to Murtha at gully and Hunter's Hill was in real trouble. Meanwhile, the seamers continued to rotate at the other end with CCNSW spearhead Avi Bhandari coming on to bowl. The final four wickets fell for zero runs as the last recognisable batter was trapped in front by Adam. Sam Millar took a sharp catch at short cover off a ball that was definitely not a long hop that deserved to go for six. Avi and Tarin Farman shared the last two wickets; Tarin finishing with a well-deserved wicket after a great opening spell. Hunter's Hill all out for 75 in the 28th over.

The innings break brought the false promise (from Jamie) of tea provided by the opposition - we made do with leftovers from the kids' party. Our opening pair of Seb White and Ryan Lynch made a solid start, rotating the strike but getting not much value for shots on a slow outfield. We also saw the pitch flattening out and getting easier to bat on, vindicating the wisdom of the bowlers before the toss. Ryan was stumped going after the spinner while Seb followed shortly afterwards, out lbw. Vivek Chickkaiyur Ramachandra and Sam Millar were now at the crease however neither spent much time there, Sam copping an unlucky lbw decision. A score of 4-38 after 16 overs might normally be worrying but we were only chasing 76 to win, so we weren't stressing.

Besides, the fall of wicket brought Adam Khamis to the crease. Yes, you read that correctly. Batting at the lofty position of 6! A greatly appreciated move, but one that left some team mates wondering if it was in fact a desperate cry for help from the skipper. At the other end, Jamie Murtha was bowled after a spinner hurried a ball through his pull shot and we went to drinks at 5-43. Afterwards, Adam Khamis was joined by Mehul Sejwal who came out swinging against an endless parade of spinners. While he did hit a big six over long on, it must be said that he was helped along by no less than 3 dropped catches, all sitters. A partnership of 28 got the score to 66, before Adam was caught while daring to play an attacking shot of his own. Mehul Sejwal followed soon afterwards, his luck having finally run out though his innings of 19 steadied the ship and avoided what could have been an unnecessarily tight finish. Avi Bhandari and Kishna Dhawan finished off the chase in the 27th over. Sometimes low scoring games turn out more interesting than they promise to be. Many thanks to Tarin Farman, Dan O'Sullivan, Viv Ramachandra, Mehul Sejwal and Kishna Dhawan from Marrickville, your availability and contributions were very much appreciated.

WEEK TWENTY TWO: SATURDAY 22–SUNDAY 23 FEBRUARY 2025

C&S ROUND 14 v REG BARTLEY XI AT REG BARTLEY OVAL, RUSHCUTTERS BAY ON SUNDAY 23 FEBRUARY 2025: REPORT BY LEN VOLKOV

Foreword

I'd always wanted to play at Reg Bartley Oval, a picturesque, picket fenced ground on Rushcutters bay. The chat on the sideline was that we had gone down to the Reg Bartley Backpackers XI earlier in the season "Nobody likes losing to the English" quipped Henry Davis, Adam Khamis warned us how slow the pitch was going to be, and that we should probably bat first, which is exactly what we did.

Act 1:

Gerry O'Shea and I opened; the RB opening bowlers bowled a tight line to a ring field, and the slowness of the pitch along with a slight change of pace found Gerry's leading edge (0). Avi Bhandari strolled to the pitch and started turning the strike over and the odd boundary before I found myself out lbw (1) as the wicket keeper moved down leg. Henry Davis and Bhandari came together to bat, and bat, and bat, and bat. A 102 run partnership that would have been worth more had the opposition put out the cones, which they apparently usually do, and a terribly slow outfield. A lot of run twos, Avi eventually walked off a sweaty mess (72). James 'Bonkers'Bonkowski clubbed his first ball over square for 6, Henry ran a few more twos and departed (24) a couple of kilos of water weight lighter. 4-129 in the 31st over, it was time to up the pace with some wickets in hand. Jonno Seifman brought his 'Last Man Stands' intensity and upped the pace. Bonkers holed out to a good catch (12) at deep, deep cow that would have been 6 on most grounds. Declan Thomas fell lbw (0), and Jonno (12) then in a lovely family moment got to bat with his nephew Matt Seifman (3) who played some good shots for little reward on that annoyingly slow outfield. Having won the toss, Cap'n Jamie Murtha (8*) combined with Adam Khamis (2*) including 9 all run in the final over to give us a respectable 8-156 on a big, slow ground.

Act 2:

Stuart Ridge (dnb) remained padded up until the final ball had been bowled and used this energy reserve to bowl his seven over allotment straight, beating the edge multiple times and constantly troubling the batters, finishing with 0-12. At the other end Henry Davis bowled a spell of medium pace off his long run, bowling one of the openers. The next pair dug in and the RB XI went to drinks at 1-52 having only scored one boundary off tight bowling. Jamie Murtha eventually got the breakthrough after drinks with Declan Thomas , having been relieved of the gloves, taking the first of three magnificent outfield catches. Meanwhile Matt Seifman, who was keeping, had to negotiate Henry Davis (1-24) bowling his second spell as leg spin and Jamie coming back after drinks bowling fast (1-22). Jonno Seifman bowled 3 tidy overs (1-12) and Adam Khamis bowled well, spinning his usual web (0-33) including the 2 death overs from one end. With Avi Bhandari bowling from the other. Things were getting tight, they needed 34 off 3 overs, then 18 off 2 overs. The temperature, dropped, a few fat drops of rain. 7 runs needed off the last. Men in blue shirts and white pants ruing dropped chances, overthrows and sneaked singles as Stuart 'The Human Calculator' Ridge kept me updated of the equation. Bhandari's last over: Wicket. 7 off 5 balls now. Wicket. 7 off 4. Dot. 7 off 3. Wicket. 7 off 2. Two, 5 runs needed off the last ball. Lofted over extra cover for 4. Scenes. Match tied, hands shook. I felt very ill.

Postscript.

After the conclusion of the match and the scorebooks being signed off by the (player) umpires) as a tie it came to light on a recalculation that the scorebooks were incorrect and CCNSW had scored more runs than the RB XI!

However MCC Law 116.10 provides :

"16.10 Result not to be changed. Once the umpires have agreed with the scorers the correctness of the scores at the conclusion of the match – see Laws 2.15 (Correctness of scores) and 3.2 (Correctness of scores) – the result cannot thereafter be changed."

Thus the match ended with the scores as recorded in the scorebook - level and being a limited over match, as a tie rather than a draw despite the RB XI only being seven wickets down.

The Team was: - Gerard O'Shea 0, Len Volkov 1, Avinash Bhandari 72, Henry Davis 24, James Bonkowski 11, Jonathon Seifman 12, Declan Thomas (w) 0 , Matt Seifman (w) 3, James Murtha (c) 8*, Adam Khamis 3*, Stuart Ridge dnb

CCNSW C&S ROUND 16 v SACHIN TENDULKAR XI AT CAMPERDOWN PARK, CAMPERDOWN ON SATURDAY 8 MARCH 2025: REPORT BY JAMES MURTHA

It was a perfect day for cricket after a very wet week. It was a miracle we were able to get on. The pitch had a few small wet spots and ultimately we decided to reduce the match to 35 overs per side.

We won the toss and elected to bat, because it's just the right thing to do! Turns out the wicket was pretty spicy, but where's the fun in chasing leather first? - We also realised we didn't have a keeper or keeping kit, so it didn't feel right to give the opposition their sweaty gear back.

The 'Tom and Gerry' show was back once again much to the enjoyment of both teams! The opening pair got us through the first half dozen overs for 25, but a flurry of wickets saw our top order single handedly dismantled by the opposition Captain, we were reduced to 5-53.

The lower order managed to survive the 35 overs and double the score from there but ultimately left us with a measly 8-113 runs to defend.

As usual we hosted tea from the canteen before heading back out onto the pitch. Special mention to Joey Clark (Old Aloysians Captain) filled in for us and kept wicket!

Mick Tarrant and Tim Jones had the ball on a string and ran through the opposition top 5 for 30 runs while James Bonkowski effected a superb run out amongst them.

One batter looked to take the game above before Jamie Murtha took his off-stump, ‘Jonno’ Seifman was so accurate with the ball picking up a couple of wickets of his own and Dan Turner picked up the crucial final wicket, SRT XI falling 13 runs short of the target.

It was a good team performance overall, particularly bowling and fielding, nice to defend a low total and looking forward to hopefully another win against Primary Club next weekend.

The Team was: - Gerard O’Shea 12; Tom Robertson 14; Dan Turner 4; Sam Millar 6; James Bonkowski 13, Jonathan Seifman 8, Joseph Clarke (w) 14, James Murtha (c) 22*, Mick Tarrant 13, Peter Rolls1*, Tim Jones dnb

WEEK TWENTY FIVE: WEDNESDAY 12 MARCH – SUNDAY 16 MARCH 2025

CCNSW C&S ROUND 16 v THE PRIMARY CLUB OF AUSTRALIA AT CAMPERDOWN PARK, CAMPERDOWN ON SATURDAY 15 MARCH 2025: REPORT BY JAMIE MURTHA

Back: Adam Khamis, James Bonkowski, Henry Davis, Soren Hughes, Sam Millar, Max Sardelic, Declan Thomas (w)

Front: Tom Robertson, Jamie Murtha (c), David Craig, Ryan Lynch

It was a hot day at Camperdown Park; temperatures were already above 30 degrees when we arrived and the humidity was soaring through the roof, and it was predicted to get to 35.

We played against Primary Club for the inaugural Jim Hadley memorial trophy. People from all over that had known Jim came to watch the match including his wife Karin and their friends and family, it made for a very special day ahead!

The captains and umpires went out for the toss, and it was quite a toss to win for Primary Club who chose to bat, against their normal ethos! Primary Club made a strong start scoring 52 before the first wicket fell caught off the bowling of Henry Davis. Soren Hughes opened from the other end and was very economical in his first spell but had no luck as catches were put down.

Adam Khamis was brought into the attack early and tore the PCA top order to shreds, picking up five wickets in quick time and all by himself, four bowled and one lbw; it was an exceptional spell of bowling as he was ripping the ball on a perfect line and length.

Wickets continued to fall at the other end and PCA looked to be in trouble but Damien Frittum had other ideas, bombing sixes literally out of the ground and into the street. He was supported by the WA 'ring-in' Damien Langley batting far too low for his skill level at No. 9 and together the pair took the Primary club to a very competitive 9-212. Poor fielding on the day unfortunately hurt us badly, but with our batting line up we still felt a chance of winning the match.

We put on a better than usual spread for lunch to mark the occasion. The teams came together and enjoyed some great food and conversation before we getting back on the pitch for our run chase. The chase got off to the worst possible start with Ryan Lynch falling for a duck trying to pull early. James Bonkowski played a couple of lovely shots to the boundary before one held in the wicket and offering a simple catch.

Sam Millar had wound back the clock the night before at his friend's birthday party; he fell cheaply, bowled – probably seeing multiple balls at the time! Soren Hughes and Max Sardelic both made starts, but unfortunately couldn't go on with it either, we looked in a very sorry state, 5 down at drinks.

It didn't get much better after the break. Tom Robertson was the best of us on the day. He cracked a few fours in his solid knock of 37 until he lost concentration and had his off stump peeled back by Frittum.

Henry Davis and Adam Khamis offered some resistance at the end. Henry looked good for his 24, playing late cuts and picking off the available singles ,while Adam scored a run a ball 13 before being bowled to end the match. All out for 133.

Not the result we wanted on the day, but fantastic all the same. The game was played in excellent spirits in front of a group of Jim's closest friend and family at one of his favorite grounds on a picture-perfect day. Special thanks for the umpires Jed and Joe for officiating and joining in the festivities.

A presentation of the trophy was conducted barefoot on the wicket to honor Jim's relaxed nature and love for surfing, cricket and life in general. Below is a beautifully written excerpt by Jon Prior from Primary Club XI, regarding the post-match presentation.

> The post-match ceremony took place on the centre wicket, both teams going out bare feet in tribute to Jim Hadley, who lost his battle with cancer on Boxing Day 2024. He was well known for removing his shoes and socks during a cricket match at first available opportunity! PCA Skipper Greg Stark was awarded the Jim Hadley Memorial Trophy, one of Jim's cricket bats which was donated by his wife Karin. As the shadows grew longer on the middle of the pitch, both teams shared stories of Jim Hadley, memories playing with him and against him, his reputation "as the best and fittest player in Veterans Cricket", his younger days "where he bowled fast leg spin like Anil Kumble" and when "he took 5-25 to win a Poidevin Gray (Under 21) Shield final against Bankstown, which included the Waugh brothers", his time as a professional tennis player and coach in the U.S. and how his image was used on Poor Toms Gin labels!

Players from both teams stayed until well after dark drinking beer and sharing memories of the man we all admired so much. We look forward to playing this fixture each year for a long time to come!
